

Pulaski Citizen.

L. W. McCORD, Editor and Publisher.

From the right the Printing Press should be, The tyrant's foe, the champion of the free; Faithful and constant to its sacred trust— Calm in its utterance in its judgments just; Wise in its teaching; incorrupt and strong To speed the right and to denounce the wrong.

PULASKI, TENN.

FRIDAY MORNING, SEPT. 21, 1866.

(Concluded on fourth page.)

Erin's patriot son? He knew no law but obedience; he acknowledged no purpose but faithfulness, proclaimed no sentiment but principle, and, as a comrade's tribute, I can only say that a truer friend, a purer patriot, a braver man never lived.

"Many and sharp the numerous ills woven with our frame; More pointed still, we make ourselves regret, remorse and shame; And man, whose heaven created frame the smiles of love adorn, Man's inhumanity to man makes countless thousands mourn."

Music of Labor.

The banging of the hammer,
The whirling of the plane,
The clanking of the busy saw,
The creaking of the crane,
The ringing of the anvil,
The grating of the drill,
The clattering of the turning lathe,
The whirling of the mill,
The buzzing of the spindle,
The rattling of the loom,
The puffing of the engine,
The fan's continual boom,
The clipping of the tailor's shears,
The driving of theawl—
These sounds of honest industry,
I love—I love them all.

The clicking of the magic type,
The earnest talk of men,
The telling of the giant press,
The scratching of the pen,
The tapping of the yard stick,
The tinkling of the scales,
The whistling of the needle,
(When no bright cheek is a-blest),
The humming of the cooking stove,
The surging of the broom,
The pattering feet of childhood,
The house-wife's busy hum,
The buzzing of the scholars,
The teacher's kindly call—
These sounds of active industry,
I love—I love them all.

I love the ploughman's whistle,
The reaper's cheerful song,
The drover's oft-repeated shout,
Spurring his stock along,
The bustle of the market man,
As he hies him to the town,
The halloo from the tree top,
As the ripened fruit comes down,
The busy sound of threshers,
As they clean the golden grain,
The husker's joke and catch of glee,
"Neath the moonlight on the plain,
The kind voice of the dryman,
The shepherd's gentle call—
These sounds of pleasant industry,
I love—I love them all.

Oh, there's a coo in labor,
If we labor but aright,
That gives vigor to the day-time,
A sweeter sleep at night;
A good that bringeth pleasure,
Even to the toiling hours;
For duty cheers the spirit,
As dew revives the flowers.
Then say not that Jehovah
Gave labor as a doom,
No—'tis the richest mercy
From the cradle to the tomb,
Then let us still be doing
What our we find to do,
With cheerful, hopeful spirit,
A free hand strong and true.

GEN. FISK is said to be mustered out— Clinton B. Fisk of the Freedmen's Bureau. If so, it is hoped he may now find time to reply to the Kentucky Legislature, that charged him with deliberate lying. He can hunt up the thirteen bound negroes, which he says he saw standing in a row on the streets of Lexington. We assure him that it is not seemly for a General, even a non-combatant one, to return to private life with the brand of "convicted liar" on his forehead. We can't say how much money he may have gathered from the unwilling contributions of the freedmen; but it should be a "big pile," to compensate for the reputation he will carry with him.—Gazette.

A Curious Suit—Law in La Crosse.

[From the La Crosse (Wis.) Democrat.]
There came out to-day before the Police Justice Hubbard, in this city, a singular lawsuit, growing out of the following particulars:

Charles Morland and Robert W. Undine, two young men about 35 years of age, have for some months been courting a young lady. The young men grew jealous of each other, and each strove to win the girl to a marriage. But she could not decide which to have.

Sunday night of last week the two men were sitting on the porch talking with the girl, when a dispute arose between them as to which was the shortest route to North La Crosse—Moreland saying by the depot, Undine claiming by the wagon road.—They referred the matter to the girl, who laughingly replied that the best way to decide was to walk there and back, each by his route, when they could decide which was the quickest; and as there was but little difference, she could know which was the smartest man. And she playfully added:

"Go, noble knights, and he who first returns shall claim my hand in marriage!" Each man started—Moreland disappearing around the corner by the depot route—Undine around the other corner, to go by the wagon road.

When Undine returned, after a forty minutes trot on a hot night, he was made still hotter by seeing Morland coolly sitting on the porch where he had been for thirty-five minutes, as he only stepped around the corner and returned, preferring sitting with the young lady to walking three miles over rail-road ties.

After some hard words, Undine told the girl to go to a better place than La Crosse, and left the house. He brought suit against the girl to recover pay for the following bill of goods, which he had presented while sparking her.

We copy the bill from the Court records:
One gold ring $5 00
One fancy fan 3 00
One pair white kids 3 00
One box confectionery 2 50

Total $13 50

On the trial, Hon. Angus Cameron appeared for the prosecution and "Brick" Pomeroy, by particular request, for the defense, under whose instructions the young lady presented a bill as follows:
To Kerosene oil, seven months $3 50
To rent of parlor for sparking 10 00
To confectionary eaten by plaintiff 25

Total $13 75

After a rather amusing trial, during which the plaintiff admitted that he ate some of the confectionery he bought the girl, the Court gave a verdict of twenty-five cents and costs against the plaintiff.

His honor Mayor Levy, Judge Flint, Gen. Washburn, ex-Mayor Lloyd, and several of our prominent business men, were in attendance out of curiosity, and were summoned as witnesses on the part of the defense as to cost of kerosene, worth of room for sparking purposes, etc., etc.

The cost of the suit amounted to $13 62½.

TAKE CARE OF THE INTERESTS OF YOUR SOUL.—Just as a young man was leaving home a friend said to him, "Take care of the interests of your soul." They were kind words; they sounded new and almost strange. They started new thoughts, and opened the way to serious questionings.—They were remembered. The Holy Spirit made them a help in the young man's conversion.

Hearing of the incident reminded me to ask, if this was not a somewhat unusual caution? We say to our children—as they leave us, "be careful of yourself—look out for your health." This is all well, and as it ought to be, but what is the body compared with the soul? Friend, take care of your soul.—Christian Era.

ONE of our exchanges says: "We happened to be in the clutches of some 'loyal' patriots once, who surrounded us with violent objections like the following:—'You tam reppel, you fight mit der countree! Mit der konshtitootshun! Mit der old phlag, py tam! You beest mine brisner! Reppel—py tam! What vor you makes war mit Seigle?—py tam!'"

A good wagon-jack may be made of two pieces of boards, two or more feet long.—Place the board in front of the wheel, one end on the ground and the other just under one of the spokes, close up to the felly; then take hold of a spoke on the opposite side of the wheel and lift, at the same time place the second board under the axle-tree. In this way a loaded wagon may be lifted with ease.

A gun will not need cleaning for years, if the muzzle is tightly corked, and a piece of rubber kept upon the tube under the hammer, while standing idle.

THE FINE ARTS.

The Elite Art Gallery,

OPENED IN PULASKI, TENN.

A PHOTOGRAPHER who understands his business, (from North of Huntsville, Madison Co., Ala.), has opened his Fine Art Gallery in Pulaski, and very respectfully invites the services to the generous and enlightened people of Giles.

Size, Coloring, etc.

In this Celebrated Establishment are made those beautiful pictures of Every Style, and of All Sizes, from Life-size to the smallest Finger-Ring Miniature, and so elegantly colored in Oil, that the Hair, Eyes, Complexion and Expression can be so well preserved by the Artist that the Likeness is at once identified as (almost) "a living creature."

"PEARL MINIATURES."

These Portraits are Rich, Complete and Beautiful. They can be highly colored and given a delicacy of complexion not possessed by the Fairiest Lady, or even the Pure Alabaster Whiteness of a Babe. In this respect only are these likenesses flattering. Of the myriads of pictures taken in the various styles of art, the "Pearl" is unquestionably the prettiest and most remarkably Life-like Portrait the world ever saw. It is Elegant.

Photographs, Vignettes, Cartes de Visite, etc.

Taken in the latest, most popular and approved styles known to the art of San-drawing. My productions of all other kinds known to the profession, will also compare favorably with any Heliographic specimens of Art in christendom. (Hence you see the folly of expending on railroads and at hotel—lost time and risk of life to distant cities or foreign countries.) They have the middle tint—no Rich in tone. Complete in detail, Bold in feature, and in every style of art, the "Pearl" is unquestionably the prettiest and most remarkably Life-like Portrait the world ever saw. It is Elegant.

OLD PICTURES, Etc.,

of any kind copied to any size. I also take pictures of individuals on Horse-back or in Buggies, Playing at Games, Groups, and Schools, Hotels in Uniform, Masons and Odd Fellows in Regalia, etc., and colored, if desired, by the most Accomplished Artist in this country.

IF MONEY IS

If Cash is paid in advance for pictures not good, they shall be re-taken, or the amount Equivalenced. I Warrant Every Picture, and Guarantee Satisfaction to Every Customer, or Make No Charge.

IMPORTANCE OF PICTURES.

If you want likenesses for your friends and relatives, come at once, for sickness or some other hidden monster may forever deprive you from another opportunity so favorable. It is a privilege to have likenesses of dear ones whether we see them again or not. These little Keepsakes are jewels. Many who read this will testify to the truth in these lines, for they, like myself, in this respect, feel and have felt the want of miniatures to recall the features of dear brothers who fell in battle or were otherwise sacrificed upon the altar of our beloved Southern Cause and peaceful recollections to their precious memories.

Hues, Colors, Dressing, &c.

White, Gray and Black, take w. g. and black. Crimson, Orange, Brown, Green and deep Red, Magenta, Yellow, Pink, Purple and Blue, take light. Checked and Flowered goods take well enough. Dark Drapery is (rather) most pleasing.

PRICES.

Photographs, 25 per doz.; 25¢ per half doz. Pearls, $12; $15 and $20 apiece. Other pictures at various rates. Double price for best children.

ARTISTS.

CEDAR BLUFF FEMALE COLLEGE.

THE members of the community in which the College is located are sufficiently acquainted with its history, progress and prospects. A brief statement, however, may be required. The College is three miles South-east of Westport, a village on the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, between Bowling Green and Franklin, Ky. It is situated upon a high point of ground, commanding a picturesque and beautiful prospect. In a remarkably health portion of the country, sufficiently retired to secure quiet and freedom from all disturbing causes, abundantly supplied with pure water and comprising all the facilities for exercise and enjoyment pertaining to country life. The healthfulness, morality, enterprise and advancement of the Institution are fully established. As it has increased in public favor more extensive accommodations were demanded, and the buildings have therefore been enlarged, and an additional number of boarders can be received and accommodated. The discipline is mild, yet thorough and decisive. The law of kindness is the law of the Institute, and no harsh or extreme measures will ever be resorted to, unless the conduct of the pupil should require such a course. But in no case will a member be permitted to remain, who is ungovernable, or whose influence on her companions is injurious. The penalties are: Admission and reproof, suspension for repeated offences, and expulsion in the last extremity.

It is the purpose of the Faculty to promote a thorough, rather than a superficial education, and to give careful attention to proper exercise and recreation on the part of the pupils, that health may not suffer while the mind is in pursuit of knowledge. It is also an important object while endeavoring to increase the mental vigor of the pupils, and add to their stores of knowledge, to cultivate that grace of manner, propriety of taste, and amiability of disposition, which characterize well bred and well informed ladies, and which will entitle them to the respect of refined and cultivated society.

The family and teachers reside in the same building with the pupils. This favors the exercise of that care and supervision which is so necessary to the success of the Institution. It is also an important object while endeavoring to increase the mental vigor of the pupils, and add to their stores of knowledge, to cultivate that grace of manner, propriety of taste, and amiability of disposition, which characterize well bred and well informed ladies, and which will entitle them to the respect of refined and cultivated society.

The signal for retiring is given at half past nine o'clock P. M. Thirty minutes after that time, no lights are permitted in the rooms.

In the morning all are required to rise at the ringing of the bell.

The young ladies are not permitted to attend during the session, any party or place of amusement, incompatible with habits of study; to receive the attention of young gentlemen while they remain members of the Institution; to visit any stores or confectioneries without being accompanied by their teachers or parents; to open accounts at any store without written permission from their parents or guardians; to leave the college premises without being accompanied by a teacher or some relative of their own family. Day pupils are required to bring a note in case of absence, tardiness, or when permission is desired to leave before the regular time, to leave the Institution in a quiet and orderly manner immediately upon dismissal; to conform in all respects to the rules and regulations for the internal government of the Institution. No deduction made in board or tuition for voluntary absence.

Regulations for Boarding Pupils.

The rooms of the young ladies are furnished, and supplied with water, fuel and lights; but they are required to keep them clean and in good order. The pupils are required to prepare lessons during the appointed hours, at night and morning.
